

Forklift Operator

The Forklift Operator is responsible for assisting customers, building lumber orders, and operating a forklift. The job is mainly outside. Other companies can refer to this position as Yard Associate, Forklift Driver, Load Builder and Outside Team Member.

Responsibilities and Duties will include but not limited to:

- Greet customers and ensure a good customer experience
- Assess customer needs and provide expert advice on merchandise sold in the lumber yard
- Operate a forklift, in accordance with the procedures and policies of the organization
- Prepare merchandise for delivery
- Rotate merchandise and maintain the inventory level of the lumber yard
- Load and unload trucks
- Help customers put purchased goods in their vehicle or on carts
- Perform other duties as requested by the supervisor

Qualifications and Skills

- Ability to work outside in all conditions, year-round
- 100% commit to a safe work environment
- Current forklift certification for the work site
- Run, maneuver, navigate and operate forklift within confines of work site
- Related experience and knowledge an asset
- Must have a positive attitude and able to handle difficult situations professionally

Benefits (including but not limited to):

- Competitive wages based on experience
- Health, Dental, Group Life Insurance (once 3-month probation has been completed)
- Deferred Profit-Sharing Plan and RRSP Deduction Plan (after 12 months FT employment)

